

We apply our learning to real life experiences.

We ask questions about why and how things are happening.

We are fascinated and have fun!

We learn and use scientific vocabulary to explain what is happening.

What does good science in our school look like?

We explore and find ways to investigate.

We make links between other areas of the curriculum

We have practical experiences in lessons using different resources